

Hi Guys!

It's Ms. C. Happy Monday! I miss everyone so much. I thought you would like to sing or read this song. It is one of my favorites. It's from the movie "Annie." So, my idea was that when you finish you could draw something from the song that you liked (I made a card).

Another fun thing to do: hide the drawing or card in a safe place in your house and have a family member try to find it. But, you need to give them hints as to where it could be.

Have fun! Three silent cheers! See you soon.

Love,
Ms. C.

P.S The sun will come out tomorrow (you might not need jackets).
